Christmas Magic, By: Margaret Perry – Over two hundred photos and drawings illustrate these easy-to-follow directions for making scores of Christmas decorations and ornaments out of materials that you can find around the house. Children, as well as adults, will be able to follow them to make a wide variety of holiday tree-hangers, jewelry and other decorations.

Christmas Decorations For You To Make, By: Susan Purdy – The most beautiful and loved things at Christmas are those you have made yourself. That is what this book is about. You will find that it is divided into two parts. The first part is devoted to decorations for the Christmas tree, the second to decorations for the table, mantelpiece, door ways, and windows of your home or classroom. Many of the projects make lovely gifts for your family or friends.

Unusual Aquarium Fishes, By: Alan Fletcher – Many of the fishes featured in this book are considered common and are familiar sights in homes, schools, pet stores, and public aquariums. However, few people realize how bizarre and incredible are the characteristics and habits of these so-called ordinary fishes, even goldfish and guppies.

Here are the stories of thirty-five fascinating fishes, illustrated with photographs, many of which show these creatures in action.

The Shivering Sands, By: Victoria Holt – A new novel of romantic suspense. This book describes a young girl's search for the cause of her sister's mysterious disappearance – a search that takes her to a forbidding old mansion near the cliffs of Dover and the infamous "shivering sands," quicksands dotted with the masts of ships they have trapped.

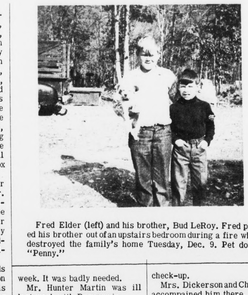
12-Year Old Saves Brother's Life



Fred Elder (left) and his brother, Bud LeRoy. Fred pulled his brother out of an upstairs bedroom during a fire which destroyed the family's home Tuesday, Dec. 9. Pet dog is "Penny."

Fred Elder, 12, and his brother, Bud LeRoy, 8, and sister, Donna Kay, lost their home, clothing, furniture – even Christmas presents already hidden away for the big day–in a fire early Tuesday morning, Dec. 9. Their grandmother, Mrs. Claude Elder, awakened the family, and Fred pulled his brother out of bed when the younger boy, confused by smoke and the early-morning hour, thought he was only dreaming that the house was on fire. The home was located in Campbell county, not far from Appomattox county.

Mrs. Elder is given credit for saving the entire family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elder (the former Thana Mann) plus the three children. They found it rather difficult to talk about as they rested at the home of Mrs. Elder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Reed, Red House road.

For the Elders and the Reeds there will still be celebrating on Christmas Day. Fred Elder is quoted as saying, "Everything I worked for has gone except my family," but he and the rest of the family agree that they are grateful that no one was lost or injured in the fire.

The Elders attend Bethany Pentecostal Holiness Church. Fred Elder is employed at Gould Battery Co., Lynchburg. Mrs. Elder is employed at Appomattox Garment Co. For the present they are staying at the Reeds with hopes of finding another place to live after the holidays.

Page Leads Rebels To 71-59 Win Over Carver Price

Sammy Page got hot for the Appomattox Rebels in the second quarter and led them to a 71-59 win over Carver-Price in a basketball game played at Carver - Price in Appomattox last Friday night. It was the first win in three starts for the Rebels as this was the first meeting between the two teams and the gym was packed full of people standing everywhere.

It looked like all Carver-Price as they ran to a quick 15-7 lead after the end of the first quarter. The Rebels did not get a field goal until 1:23 was left in that quarter when Kenny Hawkins scored.

It was different in the second quarter as Page began to hit from the corner. He scored 12 of the Rebels 25 points in that quarter as they took a 32-29 halftime lead. Plucky Williams hit on a jump shot with two minutes left to give the Rebels the lead for the first time. The score was then tied a couple of times before the Rebels went in with the three point lead.

The Rebels kept their lead through the second half as they led 51-45 after three quarters as Paul Harvey hit for seven points in that quarter. Page sat out most of the second half as he ran into foul trouble. Robert Hendricks sparks Appomattox in the last quarter as he pushed in seven quick points while Hawkins and Mike Scott handled the boards.

Page led the Rebel scoring with 21 points on six field goals and nine of eleven free throws. Hawkins was next with 13, Harvey with 11, Williams and Bruce Norconk each had eight and Hendricks seven and Scott three as the attack was very balanced.

Dave Johnson paced the Carver Price team with 16 points. He was followed by three others men in double figures. They were Welton Gafford with 12 points, Christian had 11 and Chambers 10.

Both teams had 25 field goals but the Rebels hit on 21 of 36 free throws and Carver - Price made only nine of 31 attempts.

In the J. V. game Appomattox beat Carver Price 53-47.

MT. AIRY

The Pastor and members of Mt. Airy extends its deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Oscar Days who was one of our members residing at the time of his death in Richmond, Va. In times like these we recommend you to our Heavenly Father. Be it resolved that we bow in humble submission to the will of him who doeth all things well and to wise to make a mistake and too just to err.

We should wipe our eyes and consider from this very day, Death is not a stranger and we all must pass this way.

Some to stay for many years some days are few

But someday we'll pass this way, it's something we all must do,

Life in this world is but a short visit and debt we all must pay

We are traveling from time to eternity, we all must pass the way.

The President of the Senior Class is asking each member to please be prepared to go to the Union Hill Baptist Church Sunday at 3:00.

The Rev. B. Christian and the Junior Choir were the guests at the Canaan Baptist Church Sunday night. We wish to thank our Deacons and members for accompaning us.

The Sunday School wish to cordially invite the public to our Christmas Program, December 23 at 7:00 p.m. Through a mistake our program was set the same date of one of our sister churches, for they are having their Christmas program. We regret this mistake.

The Church will have a call meeting Friday night. Everyone is asked to attend.

The pastor and members of Mt. Airy extend a cheerful get-well message to the sick of the church we know of Mr. Robert Booker Sr. who is home recuperating after a week in the Lynchburg General Hospital.
